Sean Kean, Corporate Counsel wanted to inform the board members, that two loan recipients were currently in default.

He advised them that GHGK Corporation T/A Clifton Avenue Produce was a disaster assistance loan that the LDC filed a lawsuit against back in 2016. The LDC dismissed its lawsuit based on an Agreement reached with the owner to make monthly payments of $75.00. They are not paying every month and he recommends that a strong language letter be sent to the owners to see if they will get back on track. The board members agreed that a letter should be sent.

The second loan is the Office Advantage Loan that was back in 2005 the business closed, and the loan was recast back in 2007 he was paying $100.00 a month and in 2015 payment increased to $200.00 a month. As of the beginning of this year, he has stopped paying and wants to settle this matter. Discussion followed with Rabbi Weisberg stating he would reach out to the owner. R. Coles and R. Weisberg requested the payment information be forwarded to them for review and to determine if any settlement will or could be negotiated.
