PUBLIC COMMENT

Comments from the public will be heard for a limit of one (1) hour. Each speaker will have four (4) minutes and shall be limited to one time at the podium.

Mayor Coles opened the meeting to the public.

Joyce Blay, 311 Floral Way, Toms River, NJ – Ms. Blay questioned the resolution that was passed to create a Human Resource Department. She then questioned what it will do to the position of the Township Manager.

Thomas Henshaw stated Lakewood employees over four hundred employees. This position will ensure proper training and treatment are given to all employees.

Mayor Coles ended by commending Mr. Henshaw for his dedication and service to Lakewood Township. He stated this position will help the Township prosper and is a major benefit.

Janis Urbaitis, 68 Seminole Drive – Ms. Urbaitis questioned her recent house appraisal and expressed her dislike for how she believes she is being treated compared to other properties near her. She also stated all proper procedures were followed to complete her appraisal. Ms. Urbaitis presented documentation for the above issue.

Mayor Coles requested the documentation be left with the Township Clerk and he will look further into the matter.

Mosha Diertsh, 24 Rosebank Court – Mr. Diertsh mentioned issues regarding the quality of life, traffic and infrastructure in Lakewood. He understands the developers are following the laws set forth by the Planning and Zoning board, however finds these builders to be in this strictly for money purposes. He ended by requesting the Township Committee to be more cautious when appointing members to the different boards throughout Lakewood.

Bill Hobday, 30 Schoolhouse Lane – Mr. Hobday began by mentioning a CAFRA application that was submitted for the area that is currently being used as a golf course for the Fairways at Lake Ridge. He questioned the allowance of basement apartments in a senior development. He also stated many residents paid lot premiums to have their home directly on the golf course. He ended by stating the area cannot handle the proposed amount of residents as well as the traffic and congestion that will ensue.

Mayor Coles stated he has Steve Secare looking into this matter. He stated he and other members of the Township Committee will not entertain the proposed density this will add to the area. He gave his word that he will look into this proposed building and make sure it fits in the neighborhood and enhances the quality of life.

Hindy Sachs, 28 Goldcrest Drive – Ms. Sachs mentioned the Cedarbridge Development and the flaws of the traffic study that was completed for the area. She continued by mentioning the ongoing traffic issues in the area of Pine Street, Vine Street and Washington Avenue. Ms. Sachs ended by stating the proposed traffic lights and signals will not work for this area.

Mayor Coles added that the traffic study she mentioned was not completed for or by Lakewood Township. He stated Dave Dicola, who was in attendance, is part of the firm that the Township hired to complete the study. He stated part of Mr. Dicola's job is to reach out to the community and study the traffic at its peaks.

Barbara Lou, 12 Goldcrest Drive – Mrs. Lou mentioned as a resident of Pine River Village she faces many issues with the ongoing development and traffic. She added she completed her own traffic study on her iPad and is willing to share it with the Township Committee.

Rose Gaziel, 560 Vine Street – Mrs. Gaziel requested the Township Committee to cease all construction until the roads are fixed in Lakewood. She added that her daily schedule is based on heavy traffic times throughout Lakewood.

Tom Gatti, The Enclave – Mr. Gatti wanted to mention the proposed building at the back entrance of The Enclave on Damiano Drive. He stated approximately one hundred homes will be built in this area. He also stated the schools and dormitories that are being developed in this area will highly impact the traffic on Route Nine.

Barry Hertz, 11 Oak Way – Mr. Hertz advised that the committee from Pine River Village did have the opportunity to meet with the Cedarbridge Developers. He stated the meeting did not get very far and no agreement was met. He asked the Township Committee to join them for the next meeting so more progress can be made.

David Cohen, 87 Canary Drive – Mr. Cohen discussed the traffic on Pine Street and expressed his confusion on how this proposed development is being allowed. He mentioned the private traffic study that was completed and proposed ideas for how Lakewood Township could complete their own study.

Aaron Weinberger, 19 Washington Avenue – Mr. Weinberger mentioned that the Home Owner's Association of Pine River Village are not against the proposed development. He stated they are against the size and the potential impact on the traffic problems that already exist.

Harold Heshkowitz, 1496 Cedar Row – Mr. Hershkowitz expressed his distaste for the electronic billboards that are being proposed. He discussed studies that explain how dangerous these billboards are and the potential for them to cause fatal accidents. He demanded an explanation for why this resolution is still up for discussion.

Gerry Baldwins, Governors Road – Ms. Baldwins questioned how land was sold throughout the Cedarbridge Corporate Park. She mentioned how the taxpayers are the ones funding the purchases of these parcels of land. Ms. Baldwins also asked how the Lakewood Municipal Utilities Authority was able to buy a piece of land for $1.00 (one) and if said land will benefit the shopping center on Pine Street.

Mayor Coles stated the Lakewood Municipal Utilities Authority purchased this property to build a well that will benefit all residents of Lakewood, not specifically the new retail development on Pine Street.

Yitzzy Fuchs, 554 Vine Street – Mr. Fuchs began by mentioning the decline of the quality of life for residents in Lakewood, specifically those on Pine Street. He requested the traffic lights be properly thought of since in his opinion, many do not make sense. He also stated that he does not understand how opening up Vine Street will alleviate any issues regarding traffic congestion.

Joel Libowitz, 220 East County Line Road – Mr. Libowitz addressed the issues with traffic on County Line Road and Kennedy Boulevard. He questioned a resolution that was passed in 2015 vacating part of this area. He asked the Committee if there are any suggestions for opening up Kennedy Boulevard.

Mayor Coles explained some of the ways this problem is being addressed but stated he will have to look further into to provide a proper answer in regards to this matter.

Mordy Klugow, 22 Truman Avenue – Mr. Klugow expressed his anger on how he believes the quality of life in Lakewood is deteriorating. He continued by comparing Lakewood to the ghetto and similar to a concentration camp. He asked when will the construction and developing stop so Lakewood will be able to prosper again.

Mayor Coles addressed these comments by stating that Lakewood does have challenges, however the current issues do not compare to the ones Lakewood faced in the past. He added that Lakewood was close to being as dangerous as Camden many years ago, now it is far from that. He continued by telling the audience he is excited to have this many residents in attendance to voice their opinions. He added that the Township Committee hears what they are saying and it is resonating to their hearts. He told Mr. Klugow he has every right to be angry, however he asked him to look at all the positives that are being overshadowed. He ended by disagreeing with the terminology that was used prior and expressed his love for the community of Lakewood.

Committeeman D'Elia stated he has been a lifelong resident of Lakewood. He agreed with what Mayor Coles stated and that he is proud to be a part of this community. He addressed that there are problems and he advised that the Township Committee is being empathetic with the residents. He ended by saying action is coming, however with all governments it takes time.

Alice Kelsey, 295B Malvern Court East – Ms. Kelsey began by acknowledging the change in Lakewood over the years. She expressed her desire to make Lakewood a welcoming city to people of all races and religions.

Aaron Hersh, Chestnut Street – Mr. Hersh discussed traffic studies throughout Lakewood. He asked who will be doing these studies and who is financing them. He added the difficulty for emergency vehicles have getting through certain streets in Lakewood.

Stanley Felsinger, 21 Brook Road – Mr. Felsinger expressed his appreciation for the Township Committee hearing the concerns from the public. He then suggested that Lakewood should place a moratorium on building and a committee should be developed to address current issues.

Steven Katan, 550 Vine Street- Mr. Katan expressed his worries for possible development on the wetlands on Pine Street. He requested on behalf of himself and his neighbors that these wetlands should not be developed on.

Ari Gleisch, 1372 Westminster Avenue, Brick, NJ – Mr. Gleisch requested the traffic on County Line be addressed.

Chaim Schwicha, 75 Canary Drive – Mr. Schwicha expressed his dislike to the Lakewood Shopping Center across from Pine River Village. He suggested that Pine Street should be widened if it is not too late.

Mayor Coles stated he wants the Township Engineers to look at the possibility of widening Pine Street.

Committeeman Akerman suggested the possibility of the Cedarbridge Developers giving back some of the land to aid in widening Pine Street.

Chaim Rosenthal, Lakewood resident – Mr. Rosenthal expressed his concern for electronic billboards. He asked the Township Committee to think of the safety of pedestrians and drivers when going to vote on this issue.

Chani Benkowski, 6 High Street – Mrs. Benkowski mentioned her concerns regarding traffic on Vine Street.

Nechama Goldstein, 31 Kingsfield Drive – Mrs. Goldstein wanted to thank Committeeman Lichtenstein for his work in getting her in contact with the police department in regards to the crossing guards on Oak Street. She also showed her approval for the opening of Vine Street.

Seeing no one else wanted to be heard, Mayor Coles closed the meeting to the public.
